remperance Life-Bitters,

AND CHINESE BLOOD-PILLS

The Greatest Secret Discovered of PURGE purge- purge has been the cry for the last few years. This has been effectually used and yet sufferers have multiplied and died, and uby? Not because purging was not necessary, but too much has been done without the tonic to foliar, and sustain the system. Purge, vou must be sickly humors of the blood must be carried on or the accumulation of them prevented Prevent, or the growth of such himors.

Why do the Chinese live to such immense ages, and still retain the powers of youth or middle age Because they purify the blood. The Chanese BLOOD will do it, and the Temperance Bitters, taken as directed, will strengthen the system and prevent the accumulation of the base humors which infest the blood, and which only increase by purges unless the Bitters are taken after Bur, then, these Pills and Bitters Take weekly the Pills and daily the Bitters, and if you are or have heen invalids for days, meeks, months, or years, you will find the sickly humors drawn off, and prevented from a return and the sollow yellow have of sickness change rapidly to the full blooming glow of health and youthful buoy-

There are cases so numerous of these brilliant effects, that time and space forbid an attempt to put them down Buy and use these medicines, and use wother, and health and strength shall be yours See wrapper and directions that come with them FRAUDULENT COUNTERFLITS

THE MONITORIAL READER, or a Monitor to to form their own Characters. By DANIEL ADAMS, Author of Adams's New Arithmetic EXTRACTS FROM THE PREFACE

"THE MONITORIAL READER possesses disheved to be the great desideratum in our schools practical matters of life fruth, integrity, honesty, including, temperance, forethought, flugality, patient which there are already a respectable number sucharance of adversity, and whatever one rends to Particular attention is paid to persons fitting themform and fix the character of youth.

The property of the particular attention is paid to persons fitting themform and fix the character of youth.

We wish to impress it on the minds of those, into whose hands these exercises shall come, now, in this send-time of life, what is here so shundarity inculcated, that 'Lvery man is emphatically the architect of his own fortune that with themselves it lies that a monied capital to begin with does not work

a white in the believe for or arguight them. a white in the balance for or against them that, coming meo life with health, strength, capacity for labor, good education, a useful and respectable trade, hab its of industry, sobrety, punctuality, frugshity, and, above all, with a GOOD AND UNSULTIFD CHARACTER, they have the best of all capital a moral capital the noblest of all power moral power and the most certain means of honest and bonorable accumulation and fortune, and may be sure, under circumstances ordinardy propitious, to rise to that competency of influence respect and lots, and belonging to the State, is now in the margeneral confidence, and that bonorable measure of ket for sule and settlement, to wit wealth and independence, which should fully satisfy a reasonable and virtuous ambition "

EXTRACTS FROM RECOMMENDATIONS The influence will all be found on the side of virtue, morality and religion. Occasional comments are given. Difficult or unusurd words are defined Prose and poetry are suitably intermingled. It is hardly to be imagined that this book should fail

Because they purely they work upon and cleanse of popularity. It certainly would not, had it not soft the blood are the standard remedy. These Pills is many competitors that have got the start of it in the race. As it is, its mettle is such as to give it an rpromise of ultimate success in the contest. Boston Recorder -

-Dr Adams, Having examined to show extent your Monstorial Reader, I am pleased with its plan, its object, and the manner in which is has been executed. It seems adapted to the intellectival and moral improvement of those for whose use it was designed. I trust if will prove to be what its author fondly anticipates

(Rev) Z. AND MASTERS OF VESSELS
LL LOVERS OF LOOD BREAD are recommended to make use of WM BROWN S PORTABLE CAKE YEAST, as it makes the bread much better than the common mode. The Yeast is free from all impure ingredients, makes the bread perfectly white and light is well adapted for ships' use, and will keep in all climates. It is now in extensive use in Boston, and orders are he ginning to be received from all quarters. - No bet ter evidence is wanting of its superiority over all other articles used for rising bread than the follow ing Certificate. Boston, May 20th, 1841.

The undersigned having made use of William Brown's Portable Cake Yeast for rising bread, in our opinions this new preparation of Yeast is far better than any other stricle we have ever made use of, and will make the bread much whiter and very light, and we believe to be free from all impure ingredients

Signed by the Pastry Cooks at the Tremont House, Pavilion, American House, and Mariboro

It is now in use atmost of the Holels in the cuy and on board all the Steamships belonging to Mr Cunard's line of Packets A note is just received from John Anderson, Pasiry Cook on hoard the Bleamship Brittania who writes that he has made use of Wm Brown's Yeast for making hread during two voyages across the Atlantic and car recommend it as for superior to any thing also for rising bread. No vessel should go to sea without
